ARTIST RESPONSIBILITES & AGREEMENT/ By entering artists agree to the following:

1. Art Work Preparation: All work must be ready to hang and install in a professional manner. If the artwork requires unique treatment for installation, the artist is responsible for providing specialty hardware, installation diagram & instructions. Shift Space cannot be held responsible for damaged art due to insufficient hanging devices or the improvisation of these devices.
2. General Handling: The artist must provide adequate protection of the artwork for general handling, moving, and storage prior to and post installation, if necessary, (i.e. loose prints/drawing "sandwiched" between cardboard & newsprint etc.- with the artists name Clearly Labeled on the exterior of packaging.)

3. All work should be of the same high quality as submitted by the artist in the application process. WSU Shift Space Gallery reserves the right to edit, move and or refuse any work submitted to the gallery exhibition.
4. WSU Shift Space retains the right to amend the exhibition timeline or schedule for any reason.
5. Insurance: All reasonable care will be given to the handling and display of artwork in the custody of WSU Shift Space. WSU Shift Space Gallery does not carry insurance to cover the cost of damaged, lost or stolen artwork; therefore, the artist agrees to exhibit at his/her own risk. The Artist may purchase insurance through his/her own provider.
6. Sales: There is no commission collected on the sale of artwork. Sales transactions will take place directly between the artist & prospective buyer.
